

Mission Statement

MSEF is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of individual athletes through the sport of alpine skiing by providing positive role models, quality ski race training and competitive opportunities for young Western Montana Skiers.

Coaches Vision Statement

It is our mission to provide the Missoula community with an environment that allows young athletes to strive to reach their individual potential and pursue life's goals through the sport of skiing. Our primary goal is to help each athlete learn the tools necessary to be successful in any aspect of life: weather it involves athletics, arts, education, occupation, or any other personal interest. Teaching the techniques of ski racing is secondary to the coaching of athletics as a way of life. MSEF's philosophies are based on the process of setting individual goals and maintaining focus of long-term direction for accomplishing these ideals. We firmly believe that an athletic lifestyle includes characteristics such as; confidence, respect, honor, responsibility, trust, initiative, and dedication. MSEF maintains that an individualized, athlete-driven program offers a beneficial environment for developing these characteristics.

MSEF Training and Racing Waiver and Consent
Fill out 1 for Each Participant
2011 – 2012

Participation in any sport requires an acceptance of risk and injury. I know that alpine skiing is an action sport carrying a risk of personal injury. Ski racing and training (including dryland training), with its higher speeds and occasional jumps, is even more dangerous. Injuries can occur, including but not limited to, death, spinal injuries which may result in paralysis, head injuries which may result in brain damage, serious injury to virtually all bones, joints, muscles, ligaments, tendons, and other aspects of the muscular skeletal system, internal injuries, and serious injury or impairment of other aspects of my body, general health or well being.

As an athlete, or as the parent or guardian of an athlete, I assume that those responsible for the conduct of any sport have taken reasonable precautions to minimize the risk of injury. I realize that legislating safety via coaching instructions and ski area equipment standards, while often necessary, seldom is insufficient as relying upon warning labels to produce behavioral compliance with safety guidelines. Nonetheless, I am assured that fundamentals related to safe skiing practices will be emphasized repeatedly both on and off the ski slopes by all MSEF personnel. I agree to responsibly follow all advocated safe skiing practices, and I agree responsibly follow the information below regarding the fitting and use of equipment. I realize that accepting my responsibility in both areas will result in my maximize safety while participating in skiing and ski racing.

Recommended Fitting and use of Equipment

Ski boots should be snug enough to give maximum control over the skis with one pair of socks, even if new boots must be purchased every season. Ski helmets, approved by the USSA, are mandatory for all on-hill skiing activities. They must fit snugly at the front, back and top of head. Chinstraps must be fastened and snug. Mouth guard, shin guards, slalom chin guard and padded gloves are strongly recommended whenever striking gates in courses. Protective padding over the back of hands, wrists and lower forearms, knees and shins along with face guards will minimize injury. Ski safety bindings are critical to racers safety and proper annual binding care, adjustments, settings, inspection, and upkeep by a qualified professional is necessary to avoid injuries; bindings must be checked thoroughly, serviced, and replaced as necessary by a professional ski binding technician. Ski brakes are mandatory.

I, the undersigned, Parent/Guardian (circle one) of (insert name of participant) _____ do hereby understand the risks set forth above and consent to and request that he/she be accepted as a member of the Missoula Ski Education Foundation (MSEF) to participate in the activities and competitions of MSEF. In consideration of allowing (insert name of participant) _____ to participate in the activities and competitions of MSEF, I hereby release and discharge MSEF, its directors, officers, members, employees and agent and any and all other persons in any way associated with MSEF, from any liability arising from said activities and any travel related thereto and agree to indemnify and hold harmless MSEF, its directors, officers, members, employees and agent and any and all other persons in any way associated with MSEF from any and all damages resulting from injury to (insert name of participant) _____.

Because of the dangers of participating in skiing, ski race training, and ski racing, I recognize the importance of following the coaches' instructions regarding skiing techniques and ski training, team and ski area rules, and reporting injuries as soon as they occur. I hereby agree to obey all said instructions.

I have read all pages of the MSEF Training and Racing Waiver and Consent and acknowledge that I have been advised, understand, and appreciate that the dangers and risks of skiing, ski race training, and ski racing techniques may result not only in serious injury to me but in serious impairment of my future abilities to earn a living, or engaged in business, social, and recreational activities, or generally enjoy life.

MSEF Dispute Policy

Fill out 1 for Each Participant

2011 – 2012

In the event that an athlete is involved in a dispute, either while training or during an USSA sponsored race the MSEF Board of Directors will follow the following developed procedural guidelines.

Dispute During Training:

In the event that an athlete/participant is involved in a conflict while participating in MSEF sponsored training, the athlete/participant and/or parent/guardian should proceed as follows:

- The incident should be reported to the coach of the athlete/participant's specific group.
- If the conflict is with the coach or the athlete/participant and/or parent/guardian is unsatisfied with the resolution, the MSEF President should be contacted.
- If the conflict lies with the MSEF President or the athlete/participant or parent/guardian feels there has been an unsatisfactory resolution, a MSEF board member should be contacted, who will then bring the matter to the MSEF Board. MSEF Board members are listed on the website www.missoulaskiteam.org.
- The MSEF Board will act to resolve the conflict at the next scheduled board meeting, or before, if necessary.

Dispute during a USSA or FIS Race:

USSA has specific guidelines for management of disputes (see your USSA manual), and MSEF will follow these guidelines:

- If a dispute arises during a race, the athlete/participant (parent) should report the dispute to the first available MSEF coach.
- It is the MSEF coach's duty to present the dispute to the race officials.
- When a coach is not available or the athlete/participant and/or parent/guardian are unsatisfied with the process, the incident should be reported to the MSEF President or a MSEF Board member.
- The MSEF coach, the MSEF President or the MSEF Board member then will approach the race officials.

Please keep in mind that all racers have 30 days to protest race results and ask for an official review. During that period coaches and/or board members can assist in the protest process.

I acknowledge that under USSA Northern Division rules any parent, athlete, coach, volunteer or official that physically or verbally assaults or threatens any volunteer, athlete or official shall be considered a minor offense and given a warning. If the abuse continues, it will be considered a second offense. The person doing the abusing shall be required to leave the race area immediately and not be permitted to return to the race area for the remainder of the day. The race will be stopped until this person leaves. If this person refuses to leave the race area, the ski patrol will be asked to remove this person from the hill. This shall be considered a third offense and this person (volunteer, official, athlete or coach) will not be allowed at any race area for one year.

Any infraction of this rule will be included on the Technical Delegate report and a copy will be sent to the USSA Northern Division Officials Committee. The only appeal will be through the USSA Northern Division Board, but the penalty will stand until the USSA Northern Division Board decides.

I have read and understand the MSEF Dispute Policy:
